

Sinclair Broadcasting should not force their stations to air programs--particularly those that the communities don't want. We have plenty of local issues and local news to cover. License renewal should depend on how well they serve us in our community. I encourage you to take a good, hard look!